

A SPECIAL BIRTHDAY

Charles Norman Elliot

You were born on a Sunday and it is said you are full of grace.

Born on the 20.06.1920 makes you 32,883 days old

King George V was on the throne & David Lloyd George was the British Prime Minister.

Randall Thomas Davidson was the Archbishop of Canterbury.

EVENTS THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1756 - In India, 150 British soldiers imprisoned in a cell that became known as the "Black Hole of Calcutta."

1837 - Queen Victoria ascended the British throne following the death of her uncle, King William IV

1923 - France announced it would seize the Rhineland to assist Germany in paying its war debts.

INVENTIONS THIS DECADE

John Larson invented the lie detector

Insulin invented by Sir Frederick Grant Banting

Scottish biologist Alexander Fleming discovers penicillin

ABOUT YOU

Known to all as Norman, you were born to parents Charles & Gertrude Elliot in Bootle, Liverpool. You shared a happy childhood with your sister Maureen. For many years going on family holidays to the Isle of Man. During your school years you enjoyed studying Science, Geography but not Maths!

After leaving school you went to College to learn administration skills. But soon joined in the war effort by becoming a Royal Marine & was awarded a number of medals for your bravery.

Having fought for your country you embarked upon a varied employment history as an Electrical Forman, a Council Worker, being instrumental in the Birch Green Housing Association & also servicing vending machines.

When not working, you enjoyed a range of pass times including your love of sports both watching & playing Cricket, Bowls & Football. Other pass times included woodwork, going the theater & flower shows.

You have a great love of music, your favorite song being 'When day is done' by Mario Lanza. Also listening to artists such as The Rat Pack,

Family has always been important to you. Being married twice you have your son Rodney & two step-children Susan & Derek. Now your family has grown & have grandchildren & great grandchildren.

Your birthstone is Pearl & is associated with loyalty & friendship.

Your birth flower is a rose, as popular as you.

Born in June under the zodiac sign of Gemini makes you a twin. A Gemini is said to be energetic, charismatic, communicative & witty individual. Quick to digest new information & ideas. Intelligent & logical, but with a lot of nervous energy.